

Flickstiq Sponsor Kit

Who is Flickstiq?

At Flickstiq, we are dedicated to Video Game Streaming and Cloud Gaming. Our mission is to elevate the gaming experience of our audience. We believe that Game Streaming is going to play an important role in the future of gaming. Flickstiq exists to teach Gamers how to take advantage of the products and technologies that are used in Game Streaming and Cloud Gaming. We do this by introducing them to the companies that are influential in these industries. Our audience relies on us to provide them with News, Reviews, and Guides for everything involved in streaming games.

What kind of Influencer is Flickstiq?

Flickstiq is made up of Authorities that have expertise in Game Streaming and Video Games. We come from backgrounds in Networking, Journalism, and Web Development. We pride ourselves in delivering valuable information that is accessible. Our industry is notorious for being full of tech-geeks that are very knowledgeable, but fall short when it comes to communicating that knowledge to others. We are proud of the fact that virtually anyone can follow one of our guides and have a successful Game Streaming experience.

Who is our Audience?

Our content appeals to male Gamers that range from 18-34 years of age. We have a world-wide influence that extends to many countries.

How can we help you?

Flickstiq's influence in our market creates opportunities for partnerships and sponsorships. If you are a Cloud Gaming company, we can introduce our audience to your product. We provide an overview of your features, and showcase Gameplay on your platform.

Game Developers can also benefit from what we offer. Game Streaming doesn't stand on its own. We test various Games and demonstrate how they perform in the Cloud. Cloud Gaming creates a unique opportunity for developers. Our audience is not burdened with the financial responsibility of expensive gaming hardware. Instead, they are free to focus their spending on software.

And although we just mentioned that our audience doesn't need expensive gaming hardware, we didn't say that they don't need hardware. Flickstiq is interested in partnering with hardware companies that produce potential streaming clients and accessories. These can range from computers to mobile devices and controllers. If you think that your product could be useful in Game Streaming or Cloud Gaming, then we'd love to test it and talk about it to our audience.

Our Services

At Flickstiq, we are flexible and open to a variety of partnership opportunities and sponsorships. We accept both product and monetary compensation for our services. Those services include (but are not limited to):

- Product Reviews
- Gameplay Videos
